JOHN H. LYNDE, - PROPRIETOR

THURSDAY JANUARY 30, 1870.

SETTLEMENT OF OUR LANDS.

It is evident that in these days it is impossible to settle public lands without having the surveyors and landholders held out by the State or by communities. Immigration has become a business, and competition is as lively in its interest as in that of any enterprise for developing a country. We are glad to see, therefore, that the Commissioners on the settlement of our public lands are alive to the subject, and have presented in their report a plan for procuring colonies to occupy our fertile lands in the Northwest, and wherever immigration is desired. The proposed plan is sufficient to meet the needs of the country, and the Commissioners are to be congratulated for their foresight in this respect. The plan is to send out a number of emigrants from the West to the East, and to have them settle on the public lands. The plan is to send out a number of emigrants from the West to the East, and to have them settle on the public lands. The plan is to send out a number of emigrants from the West to the East, and to have them settle on the public lands.

We hope the Legislature will take this matter into consideration, and will not drop it till some plan is matured whereby the improvement and settlement of our public lands are assured. We have confidence that immigrants can be brought to our State as well as to any other State. We have confidence that immigrants can be brought to our State as well as to any other State. We have confidence that immigrants can be brought to our State as well as to any other State. We have confidence that immigrants can be brought to our State as well as to any other State.

We know that the objection will be it was made last winter with too much effect. Any such scheme was ridiculed upon the ground that it would be a waste of money. But we are not discouraged by the first attempt. We are not discouraged by the first attempt. We are not discouraged by the first attempt. We are not discouraged by the first attempt. We are not discouraged by the first attempt. We are not discouraged by the first attempt. We are not discouraged by the first attempt. We are not discouraged by the first attempt.

We cannot expect that efforts to develop our new country will be made without regard to expense. But we should no longer regard expense. But we should no longer regard expense. But we should no longer regard expense. But we should no longer regard expense. But we should no longer regard expense. But we should no longer regard expense. But we should no longer regard expense. But we should no longer regard expense.

Every settler that we can put upon our soil will be worth a thousand dollars to the State, and we should not shrink at a little immediate expense for the certainty of an early return so profitable. Our railroads are now offering us excellent facilities for the work of colonization, and there seems no drawback. Let the State at once take hold of this matter, and before the end of this year we shall begin to see its benefits.

PARTY FAITH AND HERO WORSHIP.

Some Conservative individuals are afflicted with such a horror of party discipline that they take pains to kick at every indication of compromise for the sake of promoting party efficiency in any interest however beneficent. They are so crooked politically that they frequently take occasion to punch the ears of any brother who is so unobtrusive as to "wave his right to bark and bite at every little deviation in the course of a party leader. They do this of course in the name of "independence," they do it because of the hateful tyranny of party, they do it because no man should be so wedded to any other man, or set of men, that he couldn't honestly express his views. In this category we have frequently had occasion to notice our friend of the Portland Advertiser. That otherwise excellent newspaper we have sometimes thought warped with political hydrophobia. Upon several occasions it has taken upon itself the task of rebuking the Whig and other papers for believing in the necessity of sacrificing something of personal independence for the sake of party efficiency in the interest of what the Advertiser, as well as the Whig, believes to be the true line of governmental policy.

But it is a long time that has no turn. The Advertiser is like the most of us—somewhat burdened with fallibility. For, see now, it performs in the role of a whipper-in, it is droning its brothers in discipline. The Whig made some fair and candid criticisms of the Governor's views of the temperance movement, and lo! the very subservient organ of the Republican party, becomes in the eyes of the censor at Portland too free with its abuse of our party leaders. It is horrified because we think differently from George Chamberlain and take pains to say so in a respectful way. It even professes to fear that we are unfaithful to a good public servant, and consequently we suppose to the party to which he has been so long the standard bearer in this State.

To be candid, Mr. Advertiser, don't you think there is a good deal of similarity in your party and personal fealty? Don't you think you are sometimes in the weakness of party or personal blindness?

To be candid, once more, Mr. Advertiser, will you not do us the justice to say whether, with all your critical eyes, you have been able to discover wherein we have ever, as you seem to indicate attempted to "kick out" Gov. Chamberlain? Will you point your readers to one instance in which you have intimated that Gov. Chamberlain is not an able, honorable official? Will you inform the world wherein we have failed to do our duty towards him always as the candidate of the party? Will you show wherein we have done personal injustice?

And still, to be candid, Mr. Advertiser, can you make difference between a party advantage and a mere personal advantage? The Advertiser has been long in the habit of making a difference between a party advantage and a mere personal advantage. The Advertiser has been long in the habit of making a difference between a party advantage and a mere personal advantage. The Advertiser has been long in the habit of making a difference between a party advantage and a mere personal advantage. The Advertiser has been long in the habit of making a difference between a party advantage and a mere personal advantage.

The latter officer falls from the scaphandry in which he is at last almost surely absorbed. The hero-worshiper watches his idol so anxiously that at last nothing less than a double extra-superior degree of factory efficiency is an unobtainable commodity. We believe in men and things so far as their average capacity goes, but we believe in the Republican party and Gov. Chamberlain for what they are, and do not for the glories of an imaginary deity magnified for them. Any support beyond that is not worth having, and no statesman will appreciate the "friendship" of these hero-worshipers who are constantly watching off imaginary blunders from his character or conduct.

We have received a communication from some one who is evidently well to do, and who is responsible, reflecting upon the appointment of the Valuation Commissioners. The writer very properly thinks we will not object to a discussion of both sides of the question. But he fails to appreciate the cowardice of stalling in the dock, as we fail to recognize and appreciate him.

The Astorist Pioneer calls the Legislature a "subsidy to the Portland Argus." Newcomers speak in this manner, and the "rag" country towns. It may seem rather rough on the Legislature, but the Legislature must begin the game of roughing at the people.

In speaking of the reported proposition to remove the State Capitol, the Portland Argus writes: "Portland does not want it in it. It is a question. We hope for the consideration of the State Capitol, we are begging, as this would seem to indicate, that these may be some grapes, you know."

The temperance men of Danvers and Newcomers have organized an old-fashioned Washington movement, and promise to work in the cause. We notice they are popular and successful in several other places in this State, and we wish it an excellent omen. No law, however effective against the traffic in liquor, can after all do the real work for temperance that can be done by direct appeals to men's hearts and consciences. We hope the work will go on.

Mrs. Susan B. Anthony submitted a bill of resolutions in the Washington Convention asking the Forty-first Congress to submit a bill amendment to the Constitution in relation to disfranchisement on account of sex, and to strike out the word "man," and to disfranchise the women of Utah as a safe sanction. The bill was adopted by a large majority. The bill was adopted by a large majority. The bill was adopted by a large majority. The bill was adopted by a large majority. The postmasters and special agents of the Postmaster-General's office, have sent in a recommendation among other things that registration for letters be reduced from 10 to 5 cents, and that in the discretion of the Postmaster-General, agencies be established in the larger cities for the registration of letters free on money orders of less than 10 dollars be reduced to 5 cents, that there be located in the post-office of each large city an agent or deputy of the dead letter office, who may open and dispose of letters held in payment of postage. Many reforms and changes of postage rates are recommended, and the movement for the abolition of the existing privilege is indicated.

Removal in New York of a 1000 expedition to Canada. Most of the 1000 leaders are there. They received a letter from the Postmaster-General, and the letter was a recommendation among other things that registration for letters be reduced from 10 to 5 cents, and that in the discretion of the Postmaster-General, agencies be established in the larger cities for the registration of letters free on money orders of less than 10 dollars be reduced to 5 cents, that there be located in the post-office of each large city an agent or deputy of the dead letter office, who may open and dispose of letters held in payment of postage. News has been received from Fort Alamo, under date of 27th ult., to the effect that the revolution against Salazar is completely successful and Salazar's whereabouts is a matter of conjecture. It was supposed that he had fled to San Domingo. The people are delighted with the change that has taken place. The troops are bringing in a large number of arms and munitions. The revolution is a success. The revolution is a success. The revolution is a success. The revolution is a success. The revolution is a success. The revolution is a success. The revolution is a success. The revolution is a success.

The annual Convention of the Connecticut Temperance Union in Hartford yesterday was very largely attended. A letter was read from Senator Buckingham. President of the organization, stated his inability to be present, and expressing his continued sympathy for the cause. The Executive Committee reported on the work of the year. The report was a success. The report was a success. The report was a success. The report was a success. The report was a success. The report was a success. The report was a success. The report was a success.

A Washington dispatch states that the foreign steamship companies, which recently refused to carry the mails for the government at the reduced rates of postage have organized a lobby to dissuade Congress from giving any encouragement to establishing American lines of ocean steamers.

Mr. Thompson, accompanied by Mr. French, Secretary of the British Legation, leave Washington today for New York, to meet Prince Alfred returning with him to Washington Saturday.

President Lopez was last heard from at Panaman. He is followed by his wife and threatened to keep up a guerrilla war. Owing to the "termination of the war" the armies of the Argentine Republic and Brazil has been reduced to a peace footing.

Mrs. Clara Barton, now in Europe for the benefit of the health, sent a message to the President in which she expressed her warmest wishes for the success of the war. She expressed her warmest wishes for the success of the war. She expressed her warmest wishes for the success of the war. She expressed her warmest wishes for the success of the war. She expressed her warmest wishes for the success of the war. She expressed her warmest wishes for the success of the war. She expressed her warmest wishes for the success of the war. The Democratic papers which have been casting the most unfounded imputations on Henry Ward Beecher on account of the recently reported increase in his salary will be disappointed to see that his home station overthrew as they are, by his declining to be nominated for the office of Bishop of the Episcopal Church.

THE LATTER OFFICER FALLS FROM THE SCAPHANDRY IN WHICH HE IS AT LAST ALMOST SURELY ABSORBED. THE HERO-WORSHIPER WATCHES HIS IDOL SO ANXIOUSLY THAT AT LAST NOTHING LESS THAN A DOUBLE EXTRA-SUPERIOR DEGREE OF FACTORY EFFICIENCY IS AN UNOBTAINABLE COMMODITY. CHAMBERLAIN FOR WHAT THEY ARE, AND DO NOT FOR THE GLORIES OF AN IMAGINARY DEITY MAGNIFIED FOR THEM. ANY SUPPORT BEYOND THAT IS NOT WORTH HAVING, AND NO STATESMAN WILL APPRECIATE THE "FRIENDSHIP" OF THESE HERO-WORSHIPERS WHO ARE CONSTANTLY WATCHING OFF IMAGINARY BLUNDERS FROM HIS CHARACTER OR CONDUCT.

THE ASTORIST PIONEER CALLS THE LEGISLATURE A "SUBSIDY TO THE PORTLAND ARGUS." NEWCOMERS SPEAK IN THIS MANNER, AND THE "RAG" COUNTRY TOWNS. IT MAY SEEM RATHER ROUGH ON THE LEGISLATURE, BUT THE LEGISLATURE MUST BEGIN THE GAME OF ROUGHING AT THE PEOPLE.

IN SPEAKING OF THE REPORTED PROPOSITION TO REMOVE THE STATE CAPITOL, THE PORTLAND ARGUS WRITES: "PORTLAND DOES NOT WANT IT IN IT. IT IS A QUESTION. WE HOPE FOR THE CONSIDERATION OF THE STATE CAPITOL, WE ARE BEGGING, AS THIS WOULD SEEM TO INDICATE, THAT THESE MAY BE SOME GRAPES, YOU KNOW."

THE TEMPERANCE MEN OF DANVERS AND NEWCOMERS HAVE ORGANIZED AN OLD-FASHIONED WASHINGTON MOVEMENT, AND PROMISE TO WORK IN THE CAUSE. WE HOPE THE WORK WILL GO ON.

MRS. SUSAN B. ANTHONY SUBMITTED A BILL OF RESOLUTIONS IN THE WASHINGTON CONVENTION ASKING THE FORTY-FIRST CONGRESS TO SUBMIT A BILL AMENDMENT TO THE CONSTITUTION IN RELATION TO DISFRANCHISEMENT ON ACCOUNT OF SEX, AND TO STRIKE OUT THE WORD "MAN," AND TO DISFRANCHISE THE WOMEN OF UTAH AS A SAFE SANCTION. THE HERO-WORSHIPER WATCHES HIS IDOL SO ANXIOUSLY THAT AT LAST NOTHING LESS THAN A DOUBLE EXTRA-SUPERIOR DEGREE OF FACTORY EFFICIENCY IS AN UNOBTAINABLE COMMODITY. WE BELIEVE IN MEN AND THINGS SO FAR AS THEIR AVERAGE CAPACITY GOES, BUT WE BELIEVE IN THE REPUBLICAN PARTY AND GOV. CHAMBERLAIN FOR WHAT THEY ARE, AND DO NOT FOR THE GLORIES OF AN IMAGINARY DEITY MAGNIFIED FOR THEM. ANY SUPPORT BEYOND THAT IS NOT WORTH HAVING, AND NO STATESMAN WILL APPRECIATE THE "FRIENDSHIP" OF THESE HERO-WORSHIPERS WHO ARE CONSTANTLY WATCHING OFF IMAGINARY BLUNDERS FROM HIS CHARACTER OR CONDUCT.

THE ASTORIST PIONEER CALLS THE LEGISLATURE A "SUBSIDY TO THE PORTLAND ARGUS." NEWCOMERS SPEAK IN THIS MANNER, AND THE "RAG" COUNTRY TOWNS. IT MAY SEEM RATHER ROUGH ON THE LEGISLATURE, BUT THE LEGISLATURE MUST BEGIN THE GAME OF ROUGHING AT THE PEOPLE.

IN SPEAKING OF THE REPORTED PROPOSITION TO REMOVE THE STATE CAPITOL, THE PORTLAND ARGUS WRITES: "PORTLAND DOES NOT WANT IT IN IT. IT IS A QUESTION. WE HOPE FOR THE CONSIDERATION OF THE STATE CAPITOL, WE ARE BEGGING, AS THIS WOULD SEEM TO INDICATE, THAT THESE MAY BE SOME GRAPES, YOU KNOW."

THE TEMPERANCE MEN OF DANVERS AND NEWCOMERS HAVE ORGANIZED AN OLD-FASHIONED WASHINGTON MOVEMENT, AND PROMISE TO WORK IN THE CAUSE. WE NOTICE THEY ARE POPULAR AND SUCCESSFUL IN SEVERAL OTHER PLACES IN THIS STATE, AND WE WISH IT AN EXCELLENT OMEN. NO LAW, HOWEVER EFFECTIVE AGAINST THE TRAFFIC IN LIQUOR, CAN AFTER ALL DO THE REAL WORK FOR TEMPERANCE THAT CAN BE DONE BY DIRECT APPEALS TO MEN'S HEARTS AND CONSCIENCES. WE HOPE THE WORK WILL GO ON.

MRS. SUSAN B. ANTHONY SUBMITTED A BILL OF RESOLUTIONS IN THE WASHINGTON CONVENTION ASKING THE FORTY-FIRST CONGRESS TO SUBMIT A BILL AMENDMENT TO THE CONSTITUTION IN RELATION TO DISFRANCHISEMENT ON ACCOUNT OF SEX, AND TO STRIKE OUT THE WORD "MAN," AND TO DISFRANCHISE THE WOMEN OF UTAH AS A SAFE SANCTION.
